

The 'Bedroom' City Seeks to Grow

A Major Bayshore Industry

Daly City Eyes Industry Land

By RON BATES

Daly City, a "bedroom" community with no major industries to help pay the city's taxes, stands today on the threshold of taking the first of several steps to remedy this situation.

The city is carefully treading a legal path to annex unincorporated areas that could become major industrial regions.

The path is being followed, city fathers acknowledge freely, for a strictly dollar and cents motive — more diversified tax revenue.

If Daly City can gain industry or the land upon which industry might locate, they point out, the city's taxes — now largely borne by its homeowners — would be spread over what everyone agrees would be a more equitable and thus more desirable base.

Most of Daly City is now occupied by residential development. The city, then, is seeking to expand in essentially three directions:

East, to take in the inhabited portion of Bayshore City with its industrial potential — some of it already present.

Southeast, to take in the Crocker lands.

South, to take in the Christen ranch.

While moves toward the Crocker and Christen lands wait for the developers to act, the annexation of Bayshore properties has jumped into high gear.

Brisbane moved swiftly last month to annex approximately 10,000 acres of rich industrial land in Bayshore City, owned by the Southern Pacific Railroad and PG&E. The action was believed to have been initiated by Southern Pacific.

Daly City, which had been quietly seeking to bring in Bayshore City and its industrial properties, moved then to annex the remainder of the Bayshore area.

Included in the city's proposed annexation are properties with estimated assessed valuation of $4.5 million.

A total of 55 businesses, including Crown Cork and Seal Company, are expected to move to the city. (Please See Page 3, Column 5)

School Unity Hits Snag; 4 Plans Given

Unification of school districts in Northern San Mateo county seemed as much of a problem as ever last week after four different plans were presented to combine the districts.

The plans were offered at a meeting of four of the five North county districts, in the offices of the Jefferson Elementary school district. It was the second meeting of the boards in an attempt to draw up a mutually agreeable unification proposal which would meet state requirements.

Student Is Shoved Thru Thick Glass

A 15-year-old Westmoor High school student was recovering this week from deep cuts on his nose and forehead, inflicted Friday night when he was shoved through a quarter-inch plate glass window at the school after a basketball game.

The youth, Michael Salzberg, was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital for emergency treatment before being transferred to St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco for plastic surgery.

He was released from St. Luke's Saturday after a two-hour operation in which 40 stitches were taken in his face.

Salzberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Salzberg of 60 Northgate court, Daly City. His mother owns and operates the Westlake Beauty Salon at 371 South Mayfair drive and Althea's Hair Fashions at 171 Southgate avenue.

The student told police two (Please See Page 3, Column 1)

ALMOST — History of sorts was recorded in North County Bowling circles in the last two weeks when two teen-age boys, rolling at different bowling alleys, racked up 11 straight strikes before leaving one pin standing on the 12th ball. Here, one of the youths, Bob Grout, holds the pin that wouldn't go down at Westlake Bowl. The other youth, Gary Gil, achieved his 299 at Serra Bowl. Full details on the unusual feats are found on Page 4 in Bowling Bits.

Advice From a Pro

Pacifica's fledgling business community received a few tips from an old pro in the entrepreneurial game last week at a meeting of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce.

Herbert Beckner, the astute businessman behind Herbert's Sherbert Shoppes in the Bay Area, described a few of the policies that have made his ice cream business the success it is.

"Treat your customers as you would like to have them treat you," was Beckner's foremost suggestion. He called this policy "the golden rule of business."

He also said a businessman should:

Never talk about or criticize a competitor's product. Only by better selling techniques and practices "are you going to succeed."

Not engage in unfair business practices. "They may succeed in the short run but sooner or later they'll boomerang."

Take pride in the cleanliness of stores.

Be honest with advertising.

Never argue with customers. "If you win, you lose."

Not have a negative attitude about "your store, your product, yourself."

Never talk down to a customer.

Not feel sorry for himself. "People are not interested in your problems. They've got a million of their own."

Beckner said training help is the "keypoint to success" in any business.

"Personnel training helps define a job, helps select the people to fill a job. It also cuts the cost involved in hiring inadequate personnel," he emphasized. And he added:

"Be fair to your employees. Nothing is as disastrous to your business as a disgruntled employee who feels that he is not being treated fairly."

Mason Says Council Operating in Past

Pacifica Mayor Won't Run Again

By LOIS McNALLY

Pacifica Mayor George Mason charged last week that the city's governing fathers are operating in "horse and buggy fashion" and announced that he would not seek re-election next year.

In an announcement that caught most Pacificans by surprise, Mason said he wanted to spend more time with his family and in business. He is a salesman for Art Colvin Realty.

Mason complained that City Council members are overburdened with too many meetings, especially with meetings that are too long.

He said the Council has been meeting on the average of three and a half times a week. Regular Wednesday evening Council sessions rarely end before midnight, he noted.

Mason said: "We are trying to deal with every subject from pigeon control on. We are operating in horse and buggy fashion."

The Pacifica City Council should streamline its procedures, and have its workload reduced, he stated. Mason suggested perhaps more work could be done by the administrative staff or by citizens committees.

"I'm Tired"

Mason will have served six and a half years by the time his term ends next year. He said he felt the basic groundwork for the city had been laid, and now "I am a little tired."

The Mayor points out that Councilmen deal with matters after work when they are fatigued and irritable. Mason reiterated his previously stated belief that Councilmen should be paid at least a nominal sum for their services, saying this would attract more qualified people to perform the job.

First Term

Mason has been active in local government since before Pacifica's incorporation. He was a member of the committee seeking incorporation and has been a charter member of the Pacifica City Council. Last spring, he was elected to his first term as Mayor.

Mason says he would like to spend more time with his children before they grow up. His son is 16 and he has two daughters, 12 and seven.

George and Connie Mason moved to the coastside on New Years Eve, December 31, 1963. He says his was the first family to make a down payment on a Linda Mar home and the twenty-fifth family to move into one.

$2622 Ring Said Missing

Dora Ransom, of 562 Westmoor avenue, Daly City, reported to Daly City police Monday that a diamond, emerald platinum ring valued at $2600 was missing from her home.

She said the ring has 19 emeralds, 22 small diamonds and two large diamonds.

Colma Boy Wins Carrier Contest

A Colma newspaperboy has won first place overall in a subscription contest conducted by The San Mateo Times.

Julian Martinez of Route 1, Box 68, finished first place in his division and topped all four divisions in the contest.

He and the winners in the other three divisions were awarded scholarship bonds.

Julian is in the seventh grade at Colma school. He has had his Times route for eight months. Louis Bertalano is his circulation manager.

The contest was conducted from September 22 to December 31 of last year. The Times' circulation area was divided into four groupings.

Other winners were: Ken Brewer of 1790 Brooks street, San Mateo. He is a ninth-grade student at Hillsdale High school and has had his route for three years. His district manager is Bill Pryor.

John Lewis of 709 Alameda de las Pulgas, Belmont, an eighth-grade student at Nalston school. He has had his route three years. Frank Flier is his district manager.

The Times' 555 newspaperboys are now competing in a new circulation contest. The four top winners will receive a four-day, all-expense paid trip to Washington D.C. from April 8 to 11.

Pacifica Mulls Anti-Handbill Law Amendment

An anti-hand bill amendment may be tacked on to Pacifica's proposed new litter ordinance.

Last week, the City Council decided to put over decision on the proposed ordinance 247 "prohibiting littering and providing for clearing property of litter and creating a lien therefor" in order to consider adding an amendment that would limit the distribution of handbills and other advertising matter.

City Attorney Conrad Reisch said he would prepare an ordinance that would make it illegal to leave throwaways if a homeowner posted a notice "clearly visible from the street" that he does not want them.

When asked what the term "handbill" would include, Reisch said it would not include "newspapers of general circulation," but would include material that was principally advertising matter. He did not define his terms further.

Mrs. Kitty Brewer, representative of a coast weekly newspaper, asked the Council not to consider passing such an ordinance without first holding a public hearing.

Center Plans Celebration

Eddie Peabody, well known banjoist, will be one of the top attractions Friday at a Westlake Shopping Center Washington's Birthday celebration.

Peabody will appear at Westlake Music Center and be greeted by officials of the shopping center and Henry Doeiger, builder.

Peabody, known as "Mr. Banjo" of the entertainment world, is currently appearing at Bimbo's 365.

Stores will be open all day Friday. Some 10,000 cherry cakes and coffee will be given away in the George Washington Birthday Cake booth on the mall.

Participating Westlake stores are offering special merchandise and values in keeping with the Washington's Birthday theme.

that both Jefferson Elementary and Laguna Salada are in the middle of "extremely rapid growth."

Cow Palace, 4,000 Residents in Annex Area

Wednesday, February 20, 1963

The Post—3

GENEVA STREET, the main street of unincorporated Bayshore City, is flanked by the area's principal business and industrial community. The most significant structure seen here is the Cow Palace. Daly City Finance Director Joseph Arch has estimated the city would receive $80,000 annually in sales taxes on tickets sold for Cow Palace events.

Potential Revenue Totals $177,600

"The Bayshore annexation is of major importance to Daly City if we are to grow economically, since industrial lands are a part of this plan," says Daly City Finance Director Joseph Arch.

Included in the proposed annexation is the nationally famous Cow Palace from which the city would receive sales tax on tickets. Arch estimated the annual income at approximately $80,000.

The population of 4,000 in the annexation area would add to Daly City approximately $32,000 in annual revenue from the Motor Vehicle department in lieu of taxes and gas tax subventions.

If the city gets the Southern Pacific and PG&E properties in addition to the proposed area, the estimated assessed valuation would be $12 million and the city would get approximately $177,600 in taxes.

There would be additional revenue, hard to estimate such as income from business license fees, building permits, sales tax and charges for current services.

Taxes in Bayshore City would rise, Arch told a Bayshore Citizens meeting last month. With an assessed valuation range of $2000 to $5000, yearly taxes would be increased from approximately $8 to $20.

Some of the advantages gained by the Bayshore people would include police and fire protection, street cleaning and maintenance, street lighting and orderly planning and development.

The unincorporated area would gain the services of public works, recreation, finance, police and building departments.

The unincorporated city would also gain a greater voice in San Mateo county by joining the county's second largest city, said Arch.

Another advantage would be inclusion of the area in overall consideration for major capital improvements required by Daly City.

Industrial Land Eyed

pany, Alta Coffee company, S & W Fine Foods Inc., Oneida Nursery, and Gatti Nursery and Dusk Manufacturing company are located in the area.

The next move in the annexation proceeding is circulation of a petition by Bayshore residents who want to affiliate with Daly City. If enough signatures are obtained, the question will go to a vote.

The Brisbane move has been on shaky ground since it first began, primarily due to the efforts of Thomas L. Bocci, an attorney retained by the Bayshore Sanitary District to fight Brisbane's action.

Bocci's latest action was to obtain a court hearing on the grounds that Brisbane proceeded under the wrong annexation act.

The lawyer claims there are more than 12 registered voters in the lands proposed for annexation, thus classifying the area as inhabited. Brisbane filed to add the lands under the Uninhabited Lands Act.

If the courts find Bocci's contention correct, Brisbane's annexation would be invalidated and the city would have to wait one year before beginning a new proceeding.

By annexing land next to the land sought by Brisbane, Daly City actually is "putting its foot in the door," according to Finance Director Joseph Arch.

A city's boundary must be adjacent to land proposed for annexation. Daly City's boundaries, if the election is successful, would put the city in a position to move quickly if Brisbane's move fails.

One of the points made by Bocci when he appeared before the Daly City Council to urge action by Daly City was the effect the annexation would have on the thinking of owners off he Crocker lands.

Bocci said the Crocker business interests would most likely go to the city which got Bayshore City.

Police, Fire Requirements Are Detailed

If Daly City should annex the inhabited portion of Bayshore City, additional fire and police requirements would not be considerable, officials say.

The proposed annexation area is now protected by the Bayshore Fire department. It would be assimilated into the city's department.

The Police department would require an additional five men and one police car. The five men would give the department an additional man per shift with two men to cover days off, vacation and sick leaves.

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi said any problem relative to the Cow Palace would be sufficiently handled by off-duty police officers.

City Engineer William Chapman said a connecting road between Daly City and Bayshore City would have to be considered of primary importance in the budget for the near future.

Chapman said in his report that it would be desirable to place a connecting street between the city's Southern Hills subdivision and the nearest existing street in Bayshore.

He pointed out that the extension of Market street is planned only to the radio tower road.

He said the roads range from fair to poor but are in no worse condition than streets found in the older section of Daly City.

Extensive street resurfacing would have to be performed but the cost would be offset by gas tax funds of approximately $12,000 which the city would receive because of added population, Chapman added.

Chapman noted that Bayshore City's water system appears satisfactory.

IF AREA IS ADDED

Daly City Chamber Warns of Letdown

A Daly City chamber of commerce spokesman warned Thursday against a possible letdown by Bayshore City residents in their opposition to Brisbane's move to annex 10,000 acres of Brisbane industrial land.

Frank Martorana, chairman of the chamber's industrial planning committee, told the chamber's board of directors that once Daly City annexes the inhabited portion of Bayshore City, the people in that community might lose the desire to fight Brisbane's move in court.

Martorana said that unless Daly City took a "pretty solid stand," it would lose the opportunity to get much needed industrial land. "If we do get Bayshore City," he said, "the chamber should urge the council to rock Brisbane's boat." He said, "But I'm afraid the city council will drop the ball if its present annexation is successful."

"I have the feeling the city council doesn't want to step on any toes," Martorana said, "but why take away the icing from the cake."

"What Brisbane is trying to do is morally and ethically wrong," he said.

It's a land grab. We have more of a right to it. We are more contiguous to that area and we are larger."

Martorana told the board he believes the annexation of the Crocker lands would be inevitable if Daly City should add Bayshore City industrial property.

He suggested that Daly City fight Brisbane in court. He added that Daly City then would be in a position to force a compromise if necessary. He added further:

"There have been cracks in the dike as far as Brisbane's annexation is concerned."

More than 12 voters have been found in the area Brisbane wants, he asserted. This, he added, means that Brisbane has attempted to annex under wrong act.

Brisbane is proceeding under a state law governing uninhabited areas, which the law defines as having less than 12 voters.

Massachusetts was taken from an Algonquin Indian name "Massachuchet," meaning "great-hill."

Union Leader Plans Speech

"Automation and Its Problems in Relation to Labor" will be the topic of a speech by Larry Foss, western representative of the AFL-CIO, when he speaks at the Garden Village school at 8 tonight.

His talk, sponsored by the Daly City Colma Democratic club, is open to the public.

Foss is also business representative and public relations executive for Local 1245.

"KING OF THE LANES" at Westlake Bowl last week was not one of the 3000 adult league bowlers but sixteen-year-old Bob Groat who calmly rolled 11 consecutive strikes in the Junior Invitational Doubles, then left a six pin on his last ball for a 299 total. His previous high game was 244 while the former high game title holder was Bob Hood with 270.

It was a family affair in the Canco league as Barbara Messenger set a new high series record with a 553 three-game total while husband Hal led the men with a 221 game and 616 series.

The magic number Monday evening was 572 as Hersch Laughlin led the Blue Monday Scratch and Jules Cohen led the B'nai B'rith league with this total. Jules had a 223 high game while Hersch had a best effort of 213.

WE WELCOME BACK Dorothy Moyle after a short hospital stay. We're happy to see the A-1 Nursery sponsor back in action.

Irwin Smith took top honors in the Golden Gate Handicap with his 207 game and 565 series.

Mary Adams continues to lead the way for the ladies. After shooting a 203 game in the City tournament, she shot a 191 perfect game in the A-1 Nursery Ladies league on her way to a 528 series.

Al Gordon and West Hill moved into first place in the Westlake Handicap Doubles at the close of the third week with a 1722 total. Their score won the weekly prize in the doubles division while Wes moved into third place with a 670 in the Optional Singles and took home the weekly prize. Over 200 teams participated during the first three weeks.

Joy Bipes set the bowling picture ahead 20 years as she led the Tea Timers league with games of 183-215 and 200 for a tremendous 588 series, only two pins removed from membership in the Westlake 600 club.

Last Sunday was Father and Son Day at Westlake as Cub Pack 84 celebrated with a bowling party and dinner while earlier 150 fathers and sons from Our Lady of Mercy Cub Pack met at a Father and Son breakfast.

The newest idea of something for the girls is the Monday afternoon Handicap Doubles, which started last Monday. Scheduled weekly at 1:15 p.m. there will be a prize for every four entries as well as mystery prizes.

Dolores Langford and Ed Johnson were the week's leaders in the Southgate Mixed Fives as Dolores shot 186-481 and Ed posted a 569 series on a high game of 205.

Joe Tringale led the Westmoor Handicap on a high game of 203 and a 576 series.

SERRA BOWL

EXISTING RECORDS at Serra Bowl were eclipsed last Tuesday when 19-year-old Gary Gil let fly with a towering 299 second game in 775 Bozzers sanctioned league action. After banging eleven in a row, the slim youngster, measuring in 5'-4" and 135 pounds, turned his strong hook ball full into the 1-3 pocket only to leave a tottering 10 pin barring his early entrance into bowling's 300 Hall of Fame.

His effort created a new high individual game mark in league play at Serra Bowl and helped him to fine 643 total, his highest sanctioned series to date.

GARY GIL

Almost 300

Gary who lives at 49 Santa Ana avenue, Daly City, is currently packing a 165 average graduated from Sacred Heart High school and is employed by the Folger Coffee Co. Although his parents do not bowl regularly, Gary's ambitions to some day become a professional bowler and instructor are enthusiastically encouraged on the home front. The young star learned to bowl at Serra and is currently in his second year of organized league play.

WE ASKED Gary if he was at all nervous during the game and whether he would do anything differently on that last ball, given another chance.

"Yes, I was nervous," he replied, "but the worst of it was that everyone in the house had quit bowling by the ninth frame and had crowded around to watch my game end. (A blood-curdling roar of approval from the gathering accompanied the tenth and eleventh strikes.) As for the last ball, I couldn't do anything different. It was really the best hit of the bunch."

Was he disappointed at losing the 300 score? "You bet! I've seen it done on television and one of my friends got one but I never expected to have a chance at it myself. Not me . . . never. Oh well, maybe some day . . ."

Earlier in the week, the Serra Junior match team stormed the Castle Lanes for a tussle with the boys there. The lions were bearded in their own den as the Serra lads emerged on top by a team total margin of over 300 pins! The Box Score shows:

Serra Bowl 794 - 935 - 835 - 2564
Castle Lanes 745 - 705 - 804 - 2235

The three game sweep was led by the sharpshooting of John Tomasello who registered a nice 235-541 series for the Serra boys. Don Roeser made the best effort for the Castle kids with a 506 tally. Go to it fellas! Youth will be served.

Sea Bowl

IT WAS a week of high scores and a week for broken records. To mention a few of the most prominent, let's start with the 860 SCRATCH where Peninsula Bowlers Supply racked up high game and series with 1012-2896.

NANCY SHERWOOD whammed a new single high in the Mixed Masters with a 231. And on the men's part, Bill Clark set a new single high series of 632, only to see it fall by a pair of 246s and a 669 by your reporter.

Surfside 7 shot new hi-game and series in the Tuesday Men's Handicap with a 924-2684. In the Tuesday Men's Handicap-Danman's Hayloft shot 946 for a new high game record. (Also noted was Lois Isner topping husband Joe 413-to-391 in the Beachcombers—to quote him: "A baaaaaaah night.")

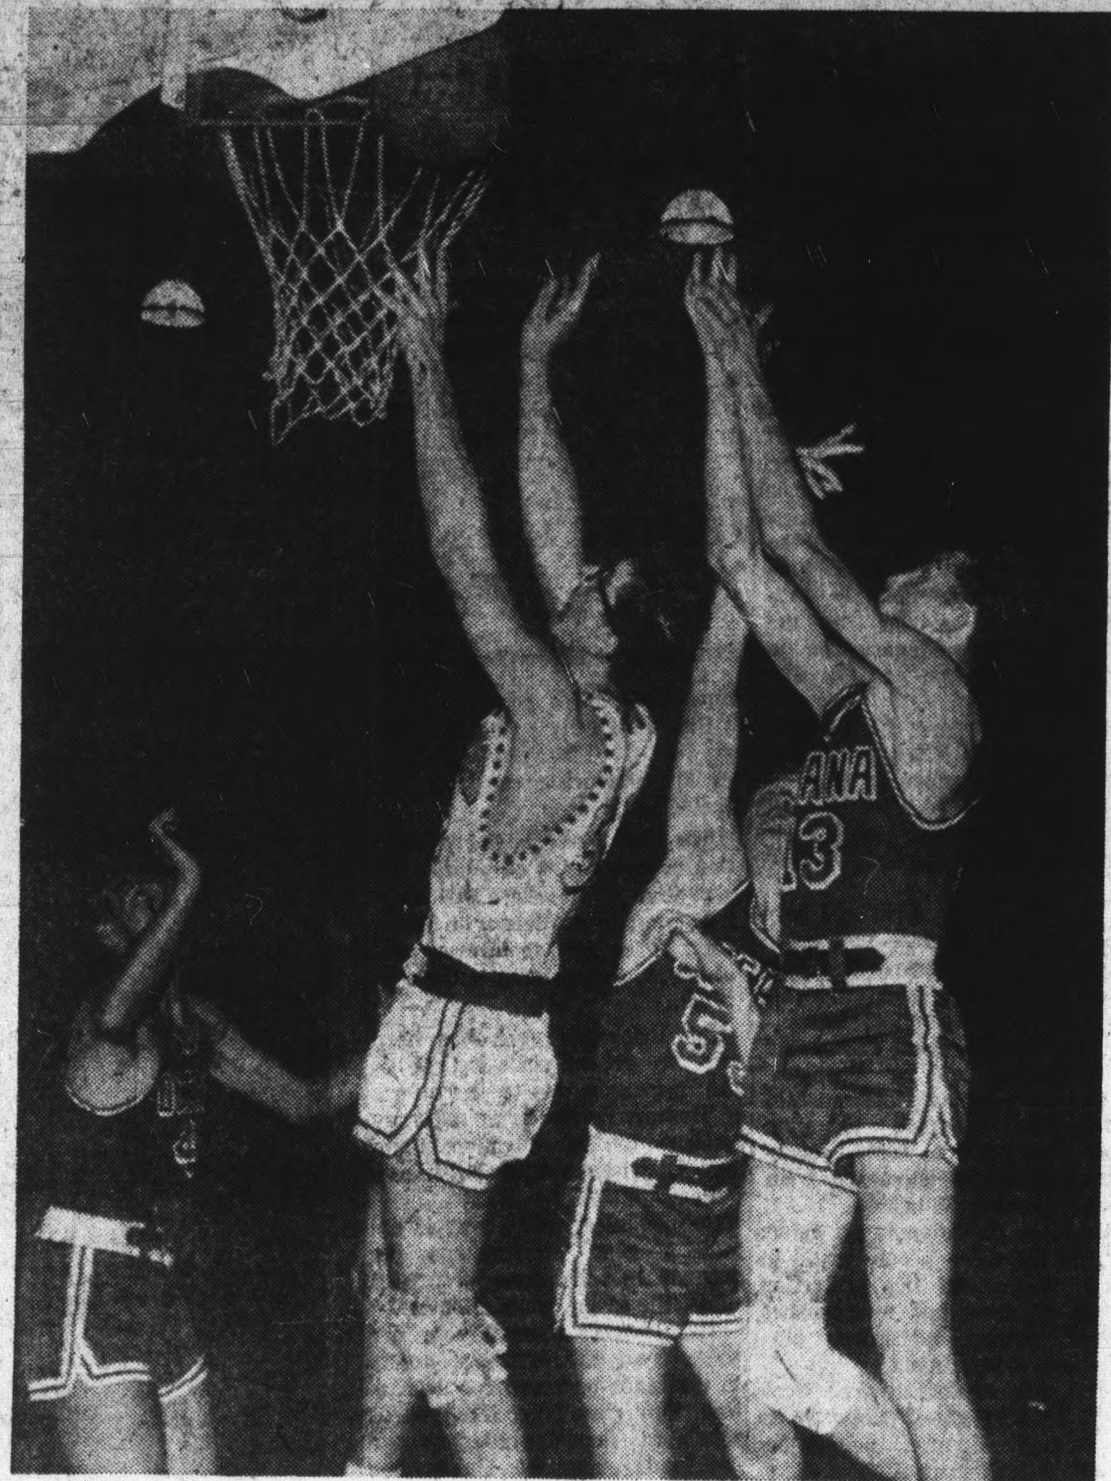

SEVERAL TEAMS are scheduled to shoot in the Bowling Proprietors Association of America team tourney this week end and a fine squad is going to the Marina Guardsman Tournament.

This week's review: Sea Breeze Woodchoppers were: John Jones 211-589, Lag Laganieri 216-564, Dee Dennehy 186-490 and June Gianini 176-460. Beauties for the Belles and Beaus: Sherm Taylor 210-538, Bill Funk 189-536, Rose Pruett 187-536 and Gloria Janson 189-487. A nice 224 by Bill Chesbro. Sleepers awakens: Pescadero's Pride "Smokey" Shalkowski 223-585, Dean Fuller 203-552, Lee Engalla 182-468 and Bonnie Jondro 182-445.

Rams Win Sixth in Row

EVERYBODY UP — Three players go up for a rebound in action Friday night between the Westmoor Rams and the Oceana Sharks. Players, from left, are Bill Broughton of Westmoor and Steve Rentmeester and Bill Scriver of Oceana. The Rams won, 49-37, to run their winning streak to six games in the North Peninsula league.

Tigers, SSF

Tie on Mat

A pin in the last 15 seconds of the last match of the North Peninsula league wrestling tournament at Oceana last week gave the Terra Nova Tigers half of the league over-all championship with South San Francisco.

Terra Nova's Mike Lally pinned Oceana's Frank Wilson in a consolation match for third place in the unlimited division to earn a point for the Tigers. It gave Terra Nova a one-point victory over Westmoor for second place.

South S. F. scored 83 points, Terra Nova had 77, and Westmoor 76. Terra Nova went into the tournament riding a five-meet win streak. South S. F. entered final competition with a 4-1 record.

Jaguars Lose Fifth in Row

The Jaguars lost their fifth consecutive game in action in the fifth and sixth grade basketball league, sponsored by the Pacific Park, Beach and Recreation department.

The Warriors beat the Jaguars, 16-11. The Panthers lost their first game of the season, bowing to the Midgets, 31-25. Bill Downing led the Midgets with 20 points.

In the seventh and eighth grade loop, the Spartans retained first place by overwhelming the Ravens, 46-18. Jim Schaffner was high man for the Spartans with 15 points.

In other league action, Doug DeArgon tallied 18 points to lead the Trojans to a 53-7 victory over the Falcons.

Nettles Take Fifth Victory

The Nettles remained undefeated in the Adult Mixed Volleyball league, sponsored by the Pacific Park, Beach and Recreation department, by downing the Barcelona Bums. In other games, the Linda Martians beat the Pews and the Jumping Beans rolled past the Parsons. Here are the standings:

Team	W	L
Nettles	5	0
Pacific Manor	3	3
Linda Martians	3	3
Pews	3	3
J-O-K's	2	2
Jumping Beans	2	2

Warriors Down El Camino Colts

The South San Francisco Warriors kept themselves in position for a crack at the league lead by downing their cross-town rivals, El Camino, 57-46, Friday night. The Warriors take on Westmoor in South San Francisco tomorrow night.

Gary Kenny's Colts appeared to have an upset in the making when they kept pace with the second-place Warriors throughout the first three quarters.

The lead changed hands seven times before the South City club took a 22-19 half-time lead.

The plucky Colts pulled up to tie it at 30-30 but a field goal by Rich Mozzini and four foul shots in the last minute of the third quarter nipped the rally.

Mozzini, Dave Parenti and Larry Cervelli mounted a three-man barrage for 21 points in the final quarter to send the Colts down to defeat.

A full-court press by the Warriors began to click towards the end of the third quarter.

South San Francisco coach Joe Schroeder credited the winning effort to the full court press and to the defensive efforts of Neil McNevin. He said his team "was tight" the first half but came around toward the latter part of the game.

Kenny looked at the defeat philosophically. "Things can't continue to go wrong for us," he said. "We'll win one soon."

The Colts played the game without two first stringers. Center Rod Aguilar did not suit up and Dave Lewis was thrown out early in the game on a technical foul.

Searsville Fitness Hike

In compliance with the current physical fitness craze, the First and Last Annual Salinger's Memorial 50 mile hike will be held at Searsville Park Friday, starting at 6 a. m.

The event will be held over a two and one-half mile course around the lake, with participants required to complete 20 full laps.

EXPRESS SLOWS

Oceana Gives

Westmoor a Tough Fight

By DON MILLER

The Westmoor Rams' pennant express continued to roll through the North Peninsula league this week although at somewhat reduced speed.

The Rams, figuring on a second easy victory of the season over inexperienced Oceana, were held to a 12-point, 49-37 victory Friday night by the Sharks on the Westmoor court.

In the first game between the two clubs at the start of the season, the Rams had over-moor a 6-0 record for the season and continued sole occupancy of the league penthouse. The loss was Oceana's fifth in six games.

Westmoor's usually smooth-running attack foundered badly in the opening half as the Rams were repeatedly called for traveling with the ball.

The Sharks, meanwhile, played careful control ball and held a one-point lead late in the second quarter before Westmoor rallied for a 19-15 halftime margin.

At the start of the second half, Westmoor coach Tony Giamonna switched from a man-to-man defense to a zone press and the maneuver revitalized the Rams.

Westmoor outscored Oceana, 16-10, in the third stanza to build a lead that wasn't threatened for the remainder of the contest.

After the game, Giamonna revealed he read the traditional riot at intermission to his charges. The Rams came back from the intermission early for some intensified practice shooting.

"The kids were a little cocky," Giamonna said. "I think this taught them a lesson."

Jack Kelly led the Rams with 13 points while Dave Breazeale and Steve Rentmeester shared top scoring honors for Oceana with 12 each.

Team	W	L	W	L
Oceana	4	1	9	12
Breazeale	2	1	5	13
Skivvies	2	1	5	13
Rentm's	0	1	7	17
Cobbs	0	1	1	1
Westpal	2	0	4	1
Pitch	1	1	3	1
	17	3	37	21
Oceana	4	11	16	12-37
Westmoor	8	11	16	14-49

Gunners Nip Terrificas

Fiscero's Gunners nipped Pacifica Terrificas, 32-30, in action in the Pacific Park, Beach and Recreation department Adult Basketball league.

Bob Fiscero was high scorer for the winners with 10 points.

In a second game, Park Vari-ety outran Cuyler's Comets, 35-33. In other action, Don Brewer tallied 17 points to lead the Terra Novians to a 53-27 victory over the Pacifica Yard Birds.

Sport's Night Set by Club

The Westlake Catholic Men's club is holding their sixth annual Father and Son Sports Night Friday, in Our Lady of Mercy parish hall at 7:30 p.m.

Color movies of the 1962 World Series between the San Francisco Giants and New York Yankees will be a highlight of the evening, announced chairman John Kilday.

Daly City Mayor Joe Verducci will be master of ceremonies. Tickets for the Giants opening day game will be given away free during the evening, along with several other valuable door prizes.

By Le Pacini

AS YOU may have noticed in the papers, this is probe time. That is, it's the time of the year when various sports get investigated.

Just lately, there has been the professional football gambling probe and the probe on whether or not boxing should be abolished in New York State.

It seems very strange that these probes always take place when there isn't too much else happening on the sports scene. I mean, have you ever seen a probe during a World Series or bowl game time, or just before a heavyweight championship fight? Rarely, I would say.

All that extra space on the sports page leaves plenty of room for names of politicians, doesn't it? And even some obscure athletes who are suddenly not so obscure anymore and — has been athletes who haven't seen their names in the paper for a while.

Wonder what odds Las Vegas would give that the scandals and probes are over before baseball spring training begins.

As for that football probe, it's so mysterious that apparently even the investigators aren't quite sure what they're probing, because not one finger has been pointed in a definite direction and Commissioner Pete Rozelle of the National Football league seems more in the dark than anyone else.

IF THE PROBES really want to probe pro football, their valuable time would be much better spent in probing pro football's college draft procedures, which makes virtual chattels out of red-blooded American boys.

New York's boxing probe, on the other hand, really can't be taken too seriously. Whether they ban boxing there or not, the net results will be the same. Boxing fans won't be seeing any boxing matches.

Oh, they'll see a few brawls, all right, but then they could see them in or outside of most neighborhood bars on any Saturday night. The contestants in either case would be just about as skilled.

Some say that if boxing is killed in New York, it will force the game "underground." Good. That's where it belongs — where nobody can see it.

As a matter of fact, being illegal could help boxing. Having to fight on barges and out of basements, fighters would no longer be getting the big purses. They'd become hungry again, have to fight more, and in doing so would gain experience.

In gaining the experience they'd become more skilled. And then as soon as a good batch of skilled fighters emerged out of the underground, boxing could be legalized again and start another cycle, running the gamut from great to gruesome.

I wonder if Cassius Clay will ever really get to explain his strategy between rounds to television audiences, as was supposed to happen in the Charley Powell fight before cooler heads stepped in.

This would open a whole new vista in the sport. Opposing corners would have television sets in their corner tuned in to Cassius, and binoculars and lip readers would come into play should the TV set blow a tube. Boy, there would be all sorts of new things to be controversial about.

A Look at the Past

LIVING P-TA HISTORY—The theme of Fernando Rivera P-TA Founders' Day program Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. will be Living P-TA History. Students Marjorie Markovich, Nancy Hopkins and Heidi Barker get in the spirit of the program by enacting the historical parts they will play. Mrs. Arthur Colman will be program narrator. Speakers will be Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan and Jefferson Elementary School District trustee Wayne Douglas. (Post-Times photo)

Ryan Plans P-TA Talk

Assemblyman Leo Ryan will speak at the Fernando Rivera P-TA Founders' night meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Ryan, who has been named vice-chairman of the assembly's education committee, will speak on "The Problems of Education as They Relate to the State Scene Here in California."

Also on the program will be a member of the Jefferson Elementary School Board, O. Wayne Douglas, who will speak on unification of school districts.

Following the speakers there will be a Founders' Day program when an honorary life membership will be awarded.

Students Return as Teachers

Three former students in the Jefferson Elementary school district returned as student teachers at the beginning of the current school semester.

Sharon Anderson, Adele Florence Hansen, and Barbara Ginsti came to student-teach at Thomas Edison Elementary school.

Miss Anderson and Miss Hansen attended General Pershing and Crocker Elementary, Colma Intermediate and Jefferson High schools.

Miss Ginsti attended Jefferson Elementary, Colma Intermediate and Jefferson High schools.

They are attending San Francisco State college.

Pacifica is Questioned About Bridge

One question being asked regularly these days at Pacifica City Council meetings is: "When will the bridge be in?"

The bridge is at the end of Linda Mar boulevard and Rostia road connecting with the old Frontierland road and Terra Nova boulevard. It has been washed out since last October's heavy storm.

Last week at city council meeting, Gordon Sullivan of 1229 Alcant drive objected to heavy construction trucks detouring by way of his street to reach Oddstad building projects in Terra Nova valley.

City Engineer Alfred Roberts has answered questions about the bridge, either from citizens or council members, with the reply that the city is waiting for materials to arrive.

Last week, he said culvert pipe needed was expected to arrive this week and construction of the bridge would begin immediately.

Roberts said that a second bridge along the same road, also connecting Terra Nova and Linda Mar boulevards, has sunk at least a foot.

He said this bridge was on private property and would not be a city responsibility until Oddstad development Linda Mar 31 is begun. He said the owner has been warned about the bridge.

Drive Leader To Give Talk

George Hill, director of Mary's Help Hospital Building fund, will address a meeting of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce at noon tomorrow at Cypress Hills Golf Club.

The topic of his speech will be: "Kickoff for Mary's Help Hospital."

Cub Pack 62 Gives Awards

Cub Pack 62 presented awards at its annual Blue and Gold dinner at Crocker school.

Assistant Cubmaster Walter Hansen presented these awards:

Ronald Bender, wolf badge, gold arrow and silver arrow; Marvin Araquistain, wolf badge and first year pin; Greg Hansen, bear badge, gold arrow and first year pin; Chris Alameda, bear badge; Gary Hansen, lion badge, gold arrow, silver arrow and two year pin.

City Managers Hold Meeting

City Manager Edward Frank and assistant to the manager Willis Hawley attended a three-day conference of the League of California Cities in Monterey last week.

Among the topics discussed were urban training and research, municipal manpower, radio communication, leadership in local government, executive development and electronic data processing.

One of the highlights of the program, according to Hawley, was a symposium on urban training and research.

Joint Meet Planned in Observance

In celebration of Brotherhood Week, members of the Jewish Community Center of Pacifica will meet with a delegation from the Pedro Valley Presbyterian church at 5 p.m. Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Leff, 291 Seaside drive, Fairway Park. Rabbi Max Hausen will open the meeting with a short traditional Friday evening service and will then address the group on: "The Place of the Jew in the Community."

Rabbi Hausen, a veteran administrator of Jewish youth activities, has served since 1961 as director of the Camp for Living Judaism at Saratoga and as youth director for the Northern California and Pacific Northwest Region of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Before coming to the Bay Area, he worked in Jewish youth camps in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, and has been national president of the Young People's League of the United Synagogues of America.

Hausen is a lawyer as well as a rabbi. He is a member of the bar of the State of New York and was ordained a rabbi in 1960 at the New York School of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion.

He served as spiritual leader of Temple Shalom, Cedar Grove, New Jersey, both before and after his ordination.

He lives in San Jose with his wife and three children.

Cancel Meeting

The junior teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Department of Recreation will not meet Friday night because of Washington's birthday, according to Alan Boyd, youth supervisor.

The Casualiers will journey to Whitney's Playland-at-the-beach for a roller skating party, he said.

Westside Pastor Plans Missionary Work Sermon

The Reverend A. David Donnelly, pastor of Westside Baptist church, will discuss, "The Commission of the King," at the 11 a.m. worship hour at the church Sunday. His sermon will be concerned with missionary work.

The Reverend Wilfred Head, literature missionary to Ethiopia, will be the featured speaker at the Conference Youth Fellowship Hour, beginning at 6:15 Sunday night.

The church combined youth groups will meet in the church auditorium for this service.

The Rev. Mr. Head will speak again at the 7 p.m. Evening Gospel Hour.

Friday afternoon, the Junior High Conference Youth Fellowship will participate in an outing on Mt. Tamalpais in Marin county.

Tomorrow and Friday, Sunday school teachers will have an opportunity to attend workshop sessions conducted by the National Sunday school association at the Melrose Baptist church in Oakland.

Dr. Clate Risley, executive secretary of the association, will lead the workshop discussions.

At 10 tomorrow morning, the

Brotherhood Fete Planned by Club

David Lesser Caplan of Los Angeles, national assistant executive secretary of the Federation of Temple Brotherhoods, will speak on, "Brotherhood, 1963... Where Are We Headed?" at the annual brotherhood dinner of Peninsula Temple Beth El Men's club.

The dinner will be at 7 Tuesday evening at the Temple's Fellowship hall, 1700 Alameda de las Pulgas, San Mateo.

A special feature of the program will be a showing of "The Chosen People," a film produced by the National Council of Catholic Men as part of their "Prejudice, USA" series presented on NBC-TV.

DIVINE SERVICES

of Westlake-Daly City-Pacific and Church Activities

Methodists to Dedicate Lane

Wesley Methodist church of Daly City will dedicate land for its new church at 2 p.m. March 26.

The ceremony will take place at the church site on Southgate avenue, east of St. Francis Square Shopping center.

The church will be near both the St. Francis Heights and Westlake communities. It will be served by the Northgate Transit company.

Construction of the first unit of the church is expected to start within a year.

Dr. Clifford Crumney, district superintendent of the Golden Gate district, will participate in the ceremony together with the congregation of Wesley Methodist church.

Representatives from other Methodist churches in the Golden Gate district also will attend.

Wesley officials said the church expects new growth at its new location since the church will be located near land which is destined for new home development.

The congregation now meets at Thomas Edison school, Southgate and Lincoln avenues in Daly City. Church school begins at 10 a.m. and worship hour at 11 a.m. Sundays. A nursery is provided.

Pastor to Speak

The Rev. George S. Johnson, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran church, will be the guest preacher for a series of Evangelism meetings at Canoga Park, Calif. Sunday through Wednesday.

The meetings are part of a program, which is being conducted by about 30 Lutheran churches in the Los Angeles area.

Vogee Heads Bethlehem Lutherans

Jack Vogee of San Bruno was elected as the first president of the new Bethlehem Lutheran church congregation last week. Vogee is a sales manager and resides at 2440 Lexington way with his wife and four children.

Other officers elected were Ken Martin, 1861 Willow way, San Bruno, vice president; Howard Loeffler, 231 Beverly place, Pacifica, secretary; Herman Langbehn, 3900 Pacific Heights boulevard, treasurer; and Walter Ness, 3600 Elston drive, assistant treasurer.

20 Enroll at Church School

Twenty new children were enrolled in the Sunday school of Bethlehem Lutheran church in San Bruno during January. This brings the enrollment of this young congregation to 170 children, about twice the anticipated number.

Rabbi Rosen Sets Sermon

"The Unfinished Task," a sermon based on a timely message, will be preached by Rabbi Sanford E. Rosen at Sabbath eve services at 8:30 p.m. Friday at Peninsula Temple Beth El in San Mateo.

Assisting Rabbi Rosen and Cantor Herbert I. Epstein will be Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Moskovitz who will offer the Kiddush and candle lighting prayers.

Sugar 'n Spice

by Nell Norton

MY MAIL indicates that you like finding new and different ideas in casseroles. So when this dish was served recently, I had the hostess, Mrs. Barbara Johnson of 1939 Forty-seventh avenue, San Francisco, give me the recipe and here it is for you to enjoy.

ENCHILADA CASSEROLE

- 1 medium onion
- 2 tablespoons salad oil
- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 can corn, with pimento and green pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon each rosemary, oregano and marjoram
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cans tomato sauce
- 1 can enchilada sauce
- 12 tortillas
- 1/2 pound sharp Cheddar cheese, sliced

Saute onion in oil. Add beef and brown. Stir in corn and spices. Combine sauces. Pour half of this mixture over the meat, simmer 5 minutes. In the bottom of a shallow casserole, arrange six tortillas. Pour meat mixture over top and arrange half of cheese over meat. Cover with remaining tortillas and remaining cheese. Pour rest of sauce over all. Cover and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, about 20 minutes. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

THERE SEEM to be lots of apples in the market these days. So why not make this dessert, which combines apples with a rich, crispy topping. Your oven is going to make the casserole and you can whip this up in a hurry and cook it alongside.

APPLE DELIGHT

- 5 or 6 cooking apples
- 1 cup flour
- 3/4 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cube butter

Peel and slice the apples into a greased baking dish. Mix the flour, sugar and butter together and pour over the apples. Bake in 350 degree oven for approximately 45 minutes or until tender.

This dessert is delicious served alone, but if you like, you can use whipped cream or pour half and half over it.

Lent is coming soon and I'm poring over my recipes and files to find some new recipes to share with you. And I'm hoping you will share your special dishes with me.

Food Editor to Speak At Y-Wives Meeting

The Post's Food Editor, Nell Norton, will speak at Monday's meeting of the Westlake Y-Wives at the Westlake Bowl from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Mrs. Norton, who writes the popular "Sugar and Spice" column in The Post, will share entertaining ideas for teas, cocktails and snacks with hors d'oeuvres and small sandwiches. The columnist said she will welcome an exchange discussion for suggestions and ideas on new recipes and urged people wishing to attend to bring along a favorite dish to share.

She has been with The Post since August of 1962. Her love of cooking enticed her to participate in the San Mateo County Fairs and The State Fairs, where she has managed to win quite a few awards.

Nell's closest friends have a unique way of presenting luncheons once a month. What is served is accompanied with the recipes of the dishes, she said.

Besides being a collector of recipes from all over the world she is active in the Thomas Edison Elementary school P-TA where her daughter Terry, six, is in the first grade. The Nortons also have a son Jim, nineteen, who attends the University of San Francisco, majoring in business administration.

'Wizard of Oz' Offered Four Times

The eighteenth production of the San Francisco Players, "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz," will be presented four times, this week in Daly City, sponsored by the Jefferson school district P-TA co-ordinating committee.

Performances will be given at 1 and 3 p.m. Friday at Colma school and at 1 and 3 p.m. Saturday and Benjamin Franklin school.

The San Francisco Players operate on a non-profit basis. They devote their repertoire entirely to the production of classical plays with musical accompaniment, directed principally to audiences of school children.

Lincoln P-TA Sets Carnival

The Abraham Lincoln school P-TA will conduct its annual carnival at the school March 1. An advanced ticket sale will begin Tuesday and Wednesday at the school. The carnival will feature a variety of games, a makeup booth and refreshments. Ragamuffin the Clown will be on hand to entertain children.

Westlake Plans Pre-Lent Dance

Final plans are now under way for the Westlake Catholic Men's Club's annual pre-lenten dance, "Casual Aire," to be held at Robert's at the Beach on Saturday. Dancing to Bill Bovero and his orchestra will be from 9 to 12. During the evening, chairman Al Della-Santa and his committee said they plan many prizes and surprises.

Tickets can be obtained for $3 per couple from Al Della-Santa at PL 5-4440 or Ben Albrecht at PL 6-0389.

Trans-Pacific communications are directed from San Francisco through regional headquarters of five major radio systems.

Life Awards To Be Given By P-TA Unit

The founders' day program and unit meeting of the Daniel Webster P-TA will be held 8 tonight in the multi-purpose room of Daniel Webster school. A special meeting of the Honorary Life Membership committee, led by Mrs. Ruth Rogers, chairman, was held last week.

Two persons will be awarded honorary life memberships during the program.

Twenty-five dollars for each award will be given by the P-TA for a revolving scholarship and loan fund, available to qualified students and teachers to further their education.

Helena Frissael, an exchange student from Stockholm, Sweden, now attending Westmoor High school, will be the guest speaker. She will compare Sweden's and California's school systems and teaching methods. Mrs. John Pleskach, 17th District vice president, will explain silver offering, which is taken each founders' day.

Kindergarten mothers will be hostesses. Display tables will be arranged by kindergarten teachers. Mrs. Curt Edgerton is chairman of the program.

Vote Is Planned On Fund Name

Court St. Mary 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold its regular business meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Our Lady of Perpetual Help auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue.

The rosary will be recited by the membership at 7:45 p.m. All members are urged to attend the meeting to vote on changing the court mortuary fund to a Mass fund.

A report on a recent fashion show sponsored by the court will be given by Mrs. Charles Wettstein, grand regent.

Reservations are being taken for the annual Day of Recollection to be held at St. Anthony's parish, 3215 Army street, San Francisco.

Non-Catholics also are invited to attend.

The day will begin with a 9 a.m. mass.

Reservations may be placed with Mrs. Charles Wettstein at LO 4-9516.

Fashion Lunch Workers Listed

Kaleidoscope of Elegance will provide the theme for the second annual luncheon-fashion show to be sponsored by the Central Peninsula chapter of Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training on March 2 at noon in the Grand Ballroom of the Thunderbird hotel. Fashions will be by the Rodina shop of Stonestown. Hairstyles will be by Mister Max.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Harold Neustadt who will be assisted by Mrs. Bernard Davis. Committee women include Mesdames Barry Rosekind, Raymond Olinsky, Werner Loeb, Robert Mendelson, Bert Phillips, Phillip Sonnenstein, Jacob Pava, Jules Geller, Stewart Feldstein, Rich Fox, Frank Vizona and Sidney Maisie.

Models will be Mesdames Sheldon Arbeit, Bernard Abram, Murray Cohn, Stewart Feldstein, Jerome Karp, William Kurtz, Walter Lerner, Joseph Levin, Curtis Meier, Selma Mittleman and Hope Tappe. Mrs. Bertram Weill will be the commentator.

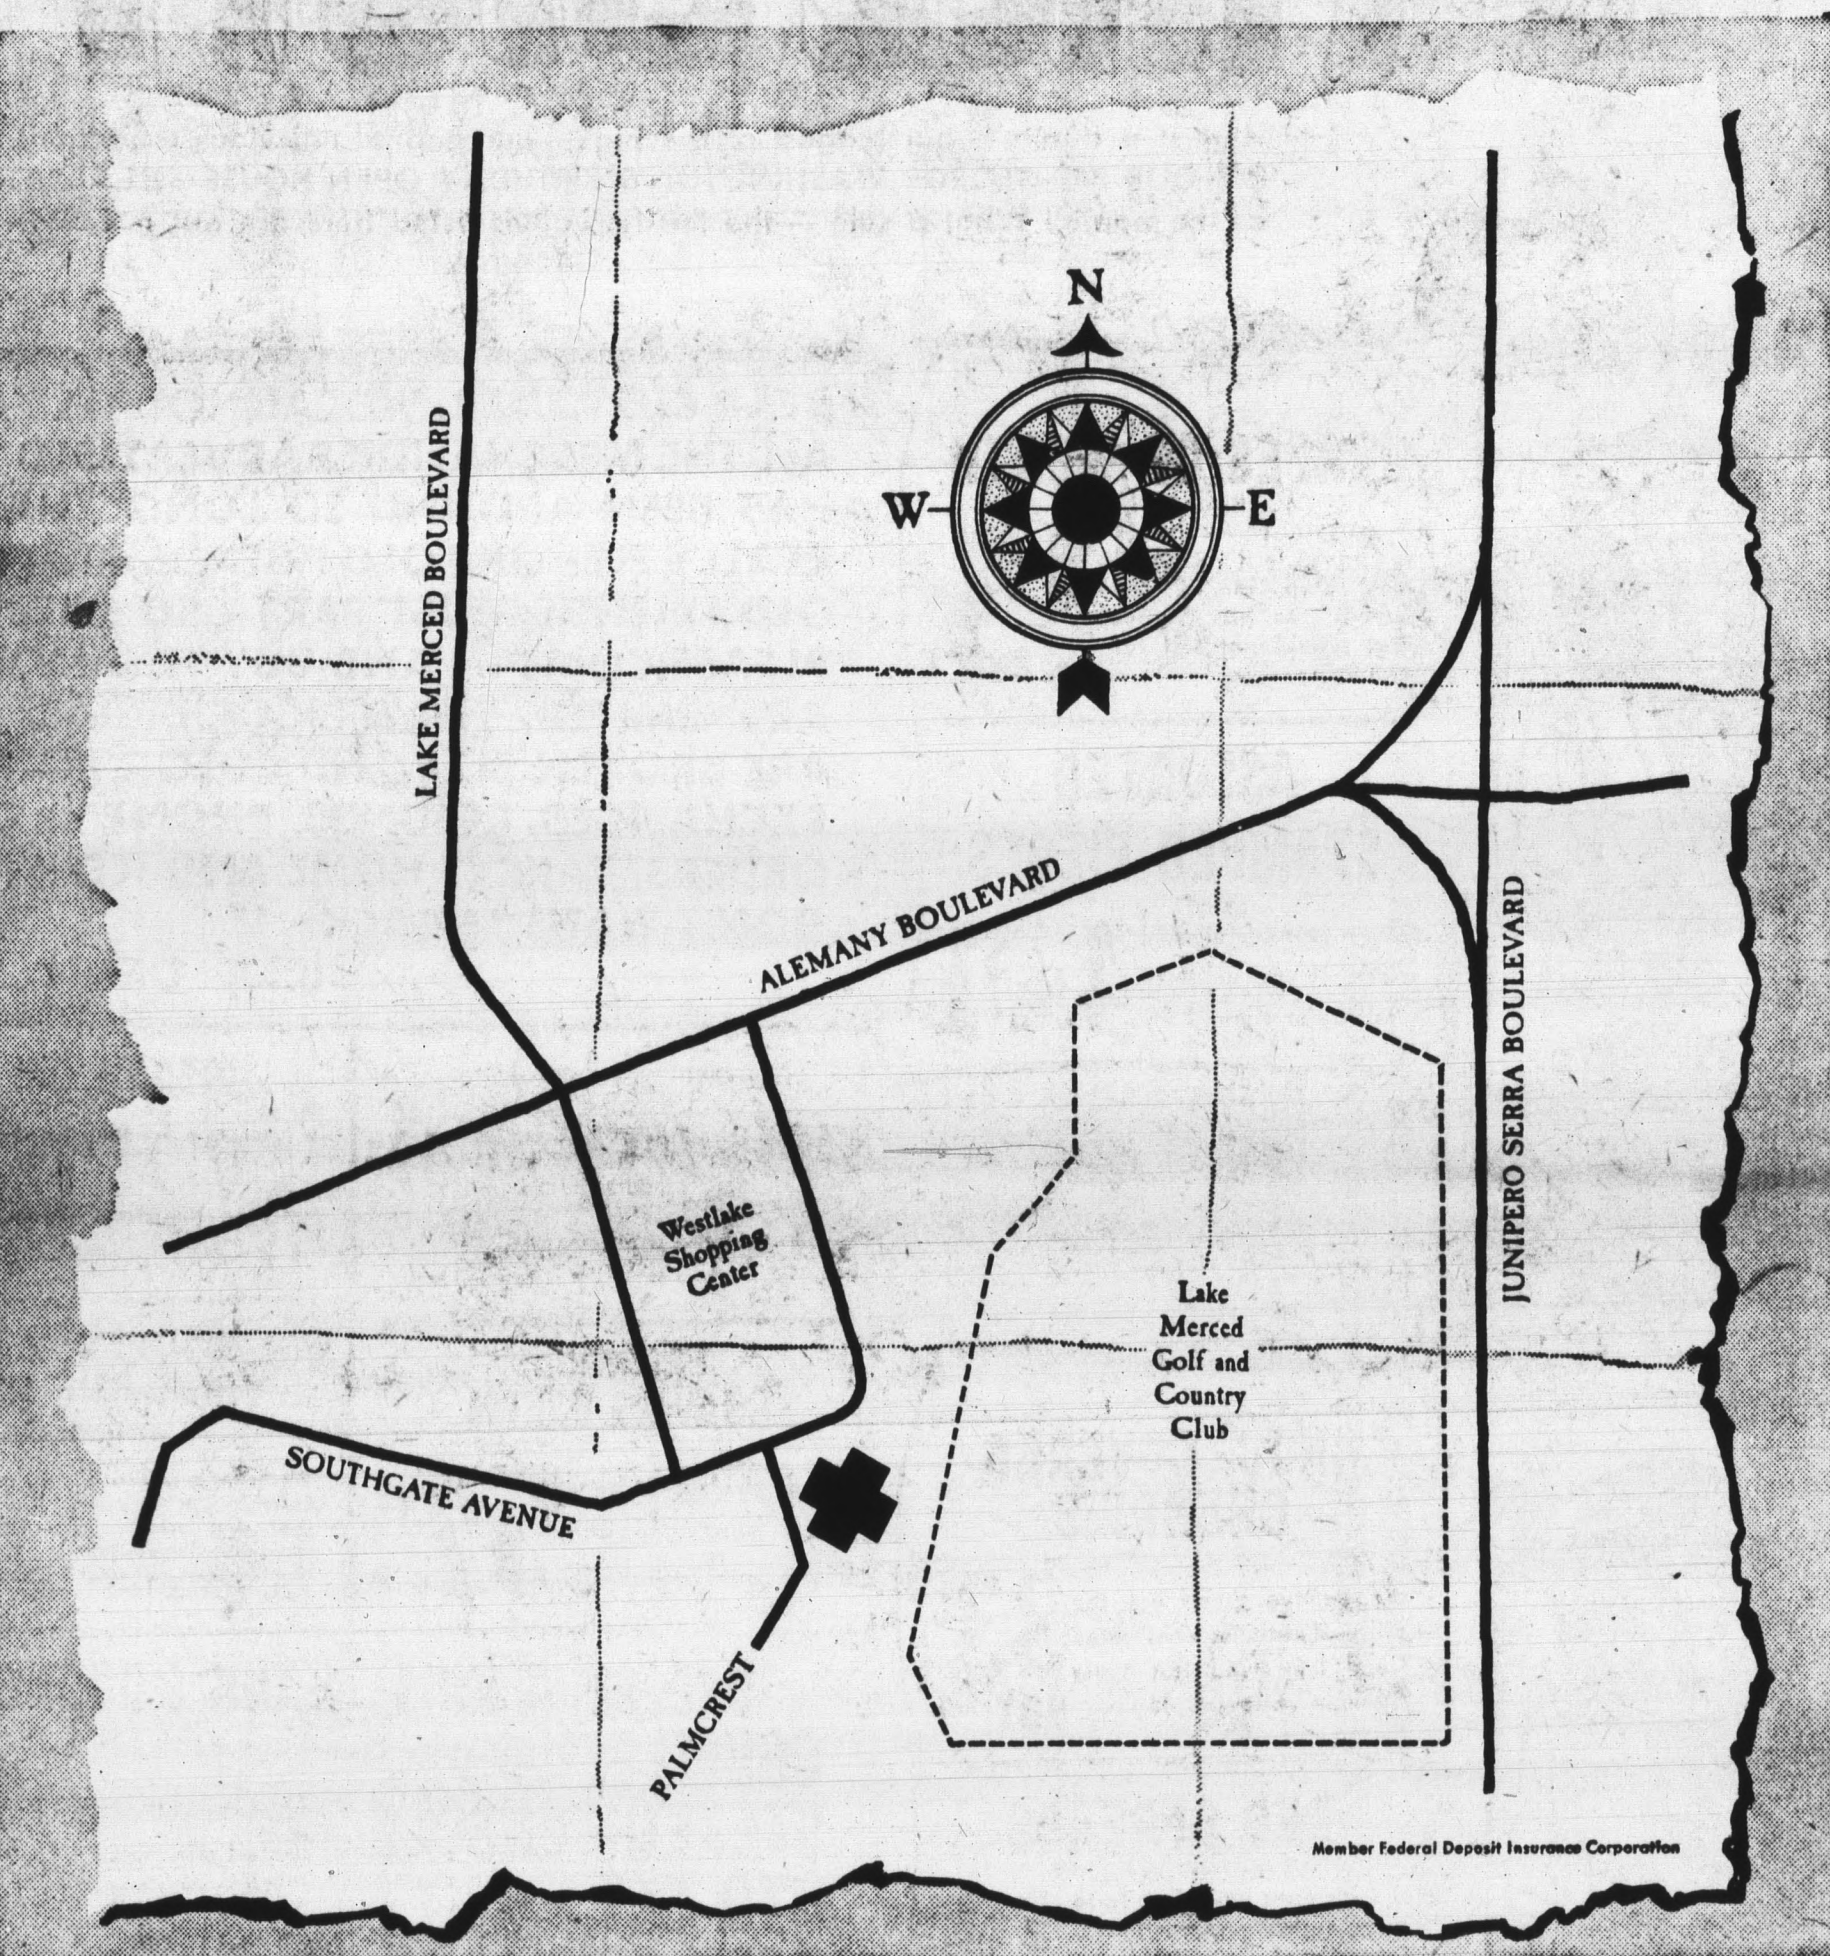

Hostesses for the afternoon will be the Mesdames Emanuel Friedman, Eric Kermit, Ruben Kesler, Werner Loeb and Paul Radcliffe.

Louanne's Datebook

By Louanne Heath

ACCORDING to U. R. (Jack) Kendree, director of the Westlake Shopping center, there will be a large group on hand to greet banjo artist Eddy Peabody when he makes a personal appearance at the Westlake Music Center at 3 p. m. Friday.

Among the local luminaries who will be on hand to help Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Morford, owners of the Music Center, welcome Peabody to Westlake will be a delegation from the shopping center, a group of Daly City civic officials and Armin Oliveras, director of the San Francisco Shrine Band.

The public is invited to meet Peabody and obtain his autograph, between 3 and 4 p. m. at the Music Center.

STILL IN THE musical vein, Howard Loeffler, director of the Westmoor Adult Education orchestra, says there is still a need for more musicians in the newly-organized group. While there is still room in all sections of the orchestra, there is a special need for violinists and pianists, he adds.

Loeffler requests that anyone interested may attend the next meeting and practice session of the band scheduled for 7 p. m. tomorrow evening in the Music Alley at Westmoor High school.

WELCOMED HOME from Childrens Hospital last week was six-weeks-old Scott Robert Parks.

Scott, who weighed only 4 pounds when he was born, was met for the first time by his brother, Jack, and his sister, Valerie, in the Southgate home of his proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Parks, Jr.

Mrs. Jackie Madden of Palmdale drive entered the hospital last week for minor surgery. No date has been set as yet for her release.

A new son, Jeffery, joined the family of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sorensen of Skyline drive February 13. Jeffery has two brothers and one sister.

MRS. KENNETH REID of Pacifica was awarded the first honorary life membership ever bestowed by the Oceana High school P-TA during a founders day program last Thursday.

Mrs. Reid, who has devoted many years to P-TA work, is the mother of twin teen-age daughters and a kindergarten age son.

Also included in the founders day program, which was directed by Mrs. Lyle Countryman, was an interesting lecture on the experiences of an exchange student in Germany, a report on the experimental installation of a closed circuit TV unit at Oceana, and a poll by safety chairman Thomas Collins on the suggested age for licensing young automobile drivers.

According to group president, Grace McCarthy, approximately 250 members attended the meeting and among them was Mrs. John Woolfolk who moved to this area during the holiday season. Mrs. Woolfolk is the former president of the 30th district P-TA located in Northern California.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD Herb Miller is determined to learn to ice skate and so the young gentleman has become a temporary and honorary Brownie and is currently accompanying the other members of Troop 587 to ice skating lessons at the Legg School of Ice Skating in San Francisco.

Herb, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Miller of Santa Ann avenue, and the girls of the Brownie Troop will complete a 13-week course in May, the girls will then be eligible for a skating badge.

Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Larry Burn and Mrs. Eugene Gelpman.

SUSAN BEGUN, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay R. Begun of Ridgefield avenue, recently celebrated her sixth birthday with a party in the home of her parents.

Dr. Lloyd Andrews, principal of Abraham Lincoln school, bestowed a certificate of life membership in the Abraham Lincoln P-TA upon Mrs. Conte Griessani at a meeting of the group earlier this month. Mrs. Griessani was honored for her many years of service to the school and to the community.

MRS. BETTY BACON will be chairman of the Abraham Lincoln school P-TA carnival to be held in the multi use room of the school March 1 from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. The public is invited to join in the fun.

Wilson Fitzgerald and Gene Christiansen will be in charge when Cub Pack 63 meets for its annual Blue and Gold banquet March 2.

Seventy five Cubs and their families are expected to attend the pot lunch dinner at Westmoor High school and view the running of a pine wood derby.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Swartz of Westlake recently hosted guests from Jamestown, North Dakota.

THE MEMBERS of the fourth grade class at Thomas Edison school are still talking about their recent exciting tour of Mission Dolores in San Francisco. The field trip was scheduled to enrich the current study of California history by the members of the class.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD SCHREIER

Steinbeck Joyce Ann Navarro Review Set Weds Gerald Schrier

John Steinbeck's Nobel prize winning works and his latest book, "Travels with Charley," will be discussed at a book review co-sponsored by the Daly City Friends of the Library and the YWCA Thursday, February 28, at 10 a. m. at the Westlake Bowl.

Ada Beveridge, well known dramatic reader and lecturer, will be the speaker. Miss Beveridge is a former speech and dramatics instructor at San Mateo college.

In addition to her work at the college as instructor from 1927 to 1959, Miss Beveridge also was active as a co-ordinator of college - community relations. Her educational background includes a bachelor of arts degree from Mills college and a master of arts degree from Stanford.

Her volunteer activities include service with the Peninsula Braille guild and as a member of the board of the Volunteer Bureau of San Mateo county. The program is open to the public. A coffee hour will precede the book review.

Mrs. Budea Gets Award

Mrs. Nicholas Budea, president of the Olympia P-TA, was awarded an honorary life membership at the monthly meeting of the elementary school group. Mrs. Budea mother of three children, is active in community affairs - participating in Cub Scouts, Little League, Girl Scouts, the March of Dimes and K-O Polio drives.

A $25 loan fund in her name will be provided to aid in teaching students.

Founders Day Skit Planned

The Vista Grande - Thornton P-TA will present a founder's day skit entitled, "The Good Old Days," at 8 tonight in Vista Grande school. The skit will depict the P-TA's growth and progress since it was formed.

Joyce Ann Navarro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Navarro of 865 Southgate avenue, Daly City, and Gerald Anthony Schreier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schreier of 87 Fairway drive, Daly City, were married in Our Lady of Mercy church at a noon nuptial mass.

A reception was held later in Olympic of Lakeside Golf and Country club. The couple honeymooned in Southern California.

The bride attended Rioran High school in San Francisco. Lenore Grado was her maid of honor. The bride's sister, Lynn, was junior bridesmaid.

Other attendants were Donna Schreier, Linda Seafid and Rachelle Nichols. Vickie Cruz was the flower girl.

The bride wore a regal princess gown of satin, taffeta and re-embroidered Alencon lace. Her bouquet was stefanotis and white orchids.

The groom's best man was his brother, Ronald Schreier. Ushers were Bert Gisen, Donald Kenney and John Blake. Vince Figone was the ring bearer.

The Reverend Timothy Monahan performed the service. More than 300 friends and relatives attended the reception. The couple plan to live at 300 Palmcrest drive in Westlake.

Style Show Notes Travel

A travel theme will highlight the March 6 luncheon and fashion show of the YWCA of San Mateo county at the Westlake Bowl. The show will run from 1 to 3 p. m.

The latest in styles from The Fashion will be shown. Panorama Travel agency will provide decorations. Cost of the luncheon show is $2. Reservations may be made by phoning PL 6-7370.

Elsie Dab is chairman of the program. Y fashion show co-ordinators Dorothy Orlich and Phyllis Odenthal are in charge of arrangements.

B'nai B'rith Women Set Lunch

B'nai B'rith Women from the San Francisco area will attend an annual donor luncheon at the Jack Tar hotel at noon next Wednesday.

The luncheon will be based on the theme "Our Fair Lady," honoring Mrs. Harry Tauber, B'nai B'rith district president.

A condensed musical version of "My Fair Lady" will be presented starring Diane Trethowan Ray and James Kramer. Arthur Wilson will be the pianist and will narrate the skit.

Tickets for a grand prize, two season tickets to the Civic Light Opera, are available from B'nai B'rith Women.

Mrs. Leonard Wasterstein and Mrs. Morris King are co-chairmen. Mrs. Roy Koss is in charge of reservations. Mrs. Harry Weinburg is the prize chairman.

B'nai B'rith Women who sell three or more donor books will be presented a solid gold charm from Mrs. Tauber at the luncheon.

Some activities financed by money derived from the luncheon are: the Anti-Defamation league, B'nai B'rith Youth organizations, veterans work, and USO activities.

Instruction In Hawaiian Dances Set

New classes in Hawaiian dancing are now being formed by the Sap Mateo County YWCA. They will start Monday. All classes will be held each Monday at the War Memorial Community center, with younger girls scheduled for 3:30 p. m. and older girls at 4:15 p. m.

Beginning adults will enter the 7:30 p. m. class and intermediate and advanced students are scheduled for 8:15 p. m. The fee for the children's classes is $5 for six weeks and for adults, $7 for the course.

All classes use the implements of the islands, such as bamboo sticks, feathered gourds, kaialu sticks, shells rocks, large jug gourd, and the lilili, a Hawaia yo-yo made from coconuts.

Advance registration is suggested for these classes and may be made by calling the Y office, PL 6-7870.

An Eye On Yesteryear

Historical Unit Will Meet Here

The San Mateo County Historical Society will conduct a special meeting in Daly City Tuesday to acquaint residents of the North County with the society's program.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the Lincoln Park clubhouse at Brunswick and Acton streets.

It will be held in conjunction with the observance of San Mateo County Historical Week, which begins Sunday.

According to a society spokesman, the group hopes to interest more North County residents in local and county history.

Dr. Frank Stanger, executive secretary of the association, will be chairman of the program.

He will give a short talk on early railroading in the Daly City-Colma area and discuss recent research on the site of the Broderick-Terry duel in Daly City.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Arthur J. Bodien, pioneer Daly City resident and former city councilman, will present a program of slides, depicting early scenes in the North County area and the development of Daly City.

Driver Held After Collision

A Daly City man was arrested on a charge of felony drunk driving Friday when his car collided with another auto driven by Louis J. Jendryisk, San Francisco, according to police.

Norman A. Helion, 92 Seal Cliff drive, told police he was attempting a left turn through a signal light when the accident occurred at Skyline boulevard and Westridge avenue.

Jendryisk, who was traveling south on Skyline, was taken to Junipero Serra Emergency hospital and treated.

Organizations have been invited to participate. The public also is invited. Refreshments will be served.

"Since You Asked Me..."

What do you think of the 50-mile hiking tad?

William Sorrentino, 180 Coronado way, Daly City, insurance executive: "I think it's stupid. I don't know how people get so enthused about things like this. I know I could do it but I won't just because everybody else is."

George Abbott, 117 Third avenue, Daly City mechanic: "It is good to see the people getting some spirit in something the nation has expressed concern about. I only wish they would get as enthused about things like national defense, voting and the like."

Mrs. Margaret Dunn, 103 School street, Daly City housewife: "I think it's funny how everybody is doing it. I wouldn't do it. I don't know if I could. I think it's good though."

Mrs. T. B. Bradley, 860 Hillside boulevard, Daly City, sales clerk: "If they want to be stupid, let them walk. I don't know of any of my friends who are doing it. A short walk is okay but 50 miles is crazy."

JoAnne Bradley, 860 Hillside boulevard, Daly City, high school student: "If people want to do it, it's their prerogative. I think though that a lot of people are doing it just for the publicity."

Thomas Neukirch, 18 Hill street, Daly City clerk: "Let them walk. I'll drive my 50 miles and get there faster. I'm on my feet too long as it is now."

Scholarship At Pacifica

The Pacifica Federated Women's club is again preparing to award its yearly scholarship to a deserving high school graduate. Ruby Ellison will act as this year's chairman.

Qualifications for the scholarship are that the student be a resident of Pacifica, have a record of outstanding scholastic ability and a special need for financial support.

2 Suspects In Burglary

A Broadmoor police officer intercepted two burglary suspects who had eluded pursuing South San Francisco police Friday.

Officer Merrill Baxley heard a radio call from the South San Francisco police, describing the car and suspects who police said burglarized the South City Carwash at Linden street and El Camino Real.

Plant of the Week

PLANT OF THE WEEK is Climbing Peace, trained to provide filtered shade for a cutting frame by Katsugoro Kobayashi of Tokyo, Japan. This method of training produces a maximum number of blooms and a very decorative garden plant.

Climbing Rose Is Plant of Week

By IVA NEWMAN
Climbing "Peace," trained to provide filtered shade for a cutting frame, is the Plant of the Week. Trainer is Katsugoro Kobayashi, a director of the Japan Rose society.

is comparable in size to the average San Mateo home garden. Considerable ingenuity must be practiced in order to have room for all the plants this ardent gardener wishes to grow, so he trains his climbers to do a functional task as well as a beautiful one.

Americans might find this height a bit trying to work under but the Japanese, used to working in a kneeling position, find it convenient. In addition this height being about level with the floor, provides a magnificent picture when the roses bloom.

Peninsula gardeners can easily copy this method of training the very vigorous climbers available today by adjusting the height of the frame to their needs. Keep in mind that climbing roses are flowering plants that can be kept in almost continuous bloom by the regular removal of spent flowers before seed pods can form. This means the flowering canes must be kept well within reach. A couple of inches above the gardener's head makes walking safe yet permits the removal of spent rose canes take over.

Garden Library To Open

East Bay garden enthusiasts are happily looking forward to the official inauguration of the new garden library at the Lake-side Park Garden center in Oakland. Developed by the Oakland-East Bay Garden Center, Inc., the Business Men's Garden club of Oakland, and the Oakland Park department, in co-operation with the Oakland Park commission, the new library will be officially inaugurated with an invitational tea at 1:30 p.m., Thursday, February 28.

Presidents and delegates of the 49 affiliated clubs of the Garden center, which worked with the park commission in sponsoring the Garden Center building, will be honored. Also being honored are Oakland Mayor John C. Houlihan and other city officials, as well as members of the other groups sponsoring the library.

Chairman of arrangements for the tea is Mrs. William Shepherd of the Cactus and Succulent society of California. Assisting her is Mrs. Alfred Leloy Jr., of Lafayette, a leading member of the East Bay Rose society and the official librarian of the new facility.

The 500-odd volumes already catalogued and classified form a solid nucleus for an anticipated collection of twice that number. The library is designed to provide research, reading, reference, and circulation of books, magazines and other materials in the fields of horticulture, floriculture, arboriculture, and related subjects.

The library will be open to the public every Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. with Mrs. Leloy on duty.

Home Landscaping Planned

Do you have a landscaping problem? Are you satisfied with the way your grounds look? Are you starting from scratch with a new lot? Whatever the case, spring is here and now is the moment for action if you want to enjoy year-long beauty in your garden and patio.

Most effective action of all is to join the adult "Home Landscaping" class offered this spring by the Evening college of the College of San Mateo. Scheduled for Monday mornings from 9 to 12 in room 204 of CSM's Delaware campus, the class is still open for registration, with particular emphasis on newcomers to the Peninsula and new home owners.

The course is oriented toward landscaping for modern California outdoor living and the low maintenance garden and patio. Lectures, demonstrations, films, and field trips will cover a wide variety of home landscaping and gardening problems, such as pruning, hanging basket and com-

'Heart Days for Business' Begun

"More lives are being saved and more cardiac patients are being returned to their jobs to continue as productive citizens," Francis W. Pearson, Jr., Redwood City, Heart-Days-for-Business chairman, said in opening the ten-day campaign in San Mateo county.

"This progress has stemmed from the result of heart research, public and professional education, all supported by business contributions to the Heart Fund," Pearson added. "During February Heart Month, during Heart-Days-for-Business in particular, when volunteers will be calling on business and industry, this opportunity to accelerate the programs through financial support is being presented."

Continuing, Pearson said that "this support by business and industry is a form of thoughtful, prudent decision-making for the health of your employees, just as you exercise care and judgement with other aspects of your business."

County co-chairmen in the Heart-Days-for-Business campaign are Dr. Mellgren C. Schroeder, San Carlos (South county); Judge Howard Hartley, San Mateo (North county); and F. Jose de Larios, South San Francisco (North county).

City chairmen in the campaign include:

South county:—East Palo Alto, Robert Rehfield; Menlo Park, Howard B. Largent; Redwood City, Edward A. Hussong; and San Carlos, Walter C. Griffen.

Central county:—Burlingame, A. Douglas Mass; Millbrae, William F. Leutenegger; and San Mateo, Ross Hamlin.

North county:—Daly City, Richard D. Mills; Colma, John Ferraro; and Pacifica, Mario Torrigiani.

Forum Series 2nd Talk Set

The second lecture in the Community Forum Series, sponsored by the Jefferson Union High School district, will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday at Westmoor High school.

Dr. Walter R. Hacker, professor at San Francisco State college, will discuss: "Russia's Land and the Many Peoples Who Inhabit Them."

New Pacifica Library Hours

Mrs. Jannette Thompson, regional librarian, announces a new schedule for the Pacifica Library, in Sharp Park, Pacifica.

Beginning February 18, this branch of the county library will be open Monday through Friday from noon to 9 p.m., and Saturday 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"It is hoped the new hours will make the library more accessible for those who commute and for those who like to use the library during the lunch and dinner hours," said Mrs. Thompson.

James A. King, district sales manager; A. W. Neville and Ira C. Neville, owners of the dealership and Harry Stevenson, general manager of the firm. Construction has started on the block-long building.

Davenport, St. Clair Head Drive

Jim Davenport, the "golden glove" of the San Francisco Giants and Bob St. Clair, all conference 4-er tackle have been named co-chairmen of the 1963 Easter Seal campaign in San Mateo county which starts on March 7 and continues through Easter Sunday, April 14.

Davenport and St. Clair, two athletes who both make their homes in San Mateo county, will lead more than 1000 citizens in urging local citizens to send in their contribution which keeps in operation the great rehabilitation and research center of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults of San Mateo county.

"We've been to the center in Burlingame and watched the trained therapists work with little children who can't walk and some who can't talk, and to see the progress they make with this professional help is amazing. Anybody who would take the trouble to visit the center and see it in operation would gladly make a substantial contribution," declared Davenport and St. Clair.

St. George LaFitte, Menlo Park, retired electronics executive, president of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults said today that he is highly pleased to have Davenport and St. Clair leading the campaign for contributions to keep the work of the center at full capacity to help the 14,873 handicapped citizens in San Mateo county.

St. Clair, in addition to being a 4-er, also is a Daly City councilman.

CSM Sponsors Nursery School

Enrollment is still open in the pre-school observation class which will return March 6 to its original quarters in the Rollingwood Community center, 2570 Catalpa way, under sponsorship of the College of San Mateo and Millbrae Co-operative Nursery school.

The Wednesday morning class for children three to five years old, accompanied by their mothers, will be taught by Mrs. Alex C. Jonsson. Second and fourth Thursday nights monthly have been set for the classes in child development in which Mrs. Jonsson will instruct participating mothers.

Story hours for young children are being conducted from 11 to 11:30 a.m. each Saturday at San Bruno Public library by Mrs. Sylvia Hambley. Using dramatization of the tales to enliven the project, Mrs. Hambley stipulates only that children attending be old enough to listen quietly without bothering others.

Neville Ford to Open Dealership

The first new car dealership to be erected in Daly City in 10 years that incorporates facilities for all automobile needs is now under construction at 6100 Mission street in Daly City.

The dealership will be operated by Neville Ford, major Bay Area Ford dealer, and will occupy a building a block long.

Company officials say the operation will be a complete automotive city.

The dealership will have a new car showroom, exhibiting the complete line of Ford cars. The showroom will have a display area on its roof — permitting prospective buyers to inspect more than 100 new cars and trucks at any time.

A used car lot will be situated adjacent to the new car showroom, facing Mission street.

The automobile service area will encompass more than 30,000 square feet. The parts department will serve as a major parts supply house for the Neville Ford trading area.

The complete operation will encompass more than 90,000 square feet of space for new car sales, used car sales, leasing and fleet program, service department, parts department and a body shop.

Dailey Named to Laguna Board

Rodney Dailey, 407 Heathcliff drive, representative of the Westview P-TA for the past two years at board meetings of the Laguna Salada elementary school district and chief area sales head for a drug supply firm, last week was named to the elementary school board of trustees in Pacific.

Dailey replaces Mrs. Betty Geppert, a trustee for two years who at the board's last meeting submitted her resignation because of the press of personal business. Mrs. Geppert, vice president of the board, still had two years to serve on her term.

Incumbent Laguna Salada board members selected Dailey from seven applicants for the trustee's post. Mrs. Geppert's resignation was formally accepted at the beginning of last week's meeting, and Dailey immediately took his seat.

Board members agreed while they are not in principle opposed to the unification of high school and elementary districts, they asserted that with the rapid growth of the Pacific area and the ultimate potential of the Laguna Salada district it probably would not be wise now to unify with the Jefferson Union high school district.

Superintendent Frederick E. Lucas reported that he and other elementary administrative heads met recently with administrators of the Jefferson high school district to co-ordinate curriculum and personnel patterns. He agreed other such meetings should be held.

The board took under study a petition signed by 47 seventh and eighth grade students from the Linda Mar school that schools open one hour earlier and close an hour earlier. If approved, classes would open at 8 and close at 2:30 instead of opening at 9 and closing at 3:30, as present. Lucas will make a recommendation on the petition.

Lucas reported that science materials provided by Science Research associates used in the local district and challenged by a group of parents in the Glendora school district east of Los Angeles have been cleared by Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction.

Lucas was instructed to apply for state funds to finance engineering and soil studies and appraisals of two possible school sites in the Rockaway Beach area. One upper site is on Foster boulevard, while a lower site is near the old rifle range. It is planned to construct a new 19 classroom and kindergarten school in the area to serve 650 pupils. Lucas estimated it will take from eight to 12 weeks to get reports on each site.

The contractor at the new Carillo school was given a two-week extension on his contract because of delays caused by storms.

Runnersup to Waterman in the finals were Tom Groves, second, and Bill Hopper, third. Waterman will represent Pacifica at the regional finals in San Francisco Saturday.

New Vote on Appointive Head Slated

San Mateo county voters will be asked again this year to approve a charter amendment to make the job of county superintendent of schools appointive rather than elective.

The Board of Supervisors last week authorized submission of the amendment to the electorate at the countywide school elections April 16.

County Manager E. R. Stallings said it will be identical to the proposed amendment that was voted down, along with a score of other charter changes, in 1961. The vote against the particular proposition then was 30,785 no and 20,924 yes.

Among those who spoke out before the board last week in support of the change were Mrs. W. J. Adams, representing the League of Women Voters of South San Mateo county and San Mateo; Mrs. Eleanor Nettle, of the county School Boards association; Charles Knight, representing the School District Superintendents association; and Mrs. Florence Cadigan, president of the county Board of Education.

Mrs. Adams, who offered the support of the League in promoting the amendment, commended the incumbent county superintendent, James R. Tormey, for the "finest leadership in the state."

Mrs. Cadigan said the elective board of education and Tormey have been operating on a "gentlemen's agreement" and fortunately have had the same purposes. If the amendment is approved, the county superintendent will be appointed by the board.

Mrs. Nettle warned of the possibility of trouble between an elective superintendent and an elective board, and recalled the friction that once existed in county government when the county executive was elected.

Knight also praised Tormey for an "outstanding job." Tormey explained that his previously published statement that he would retire at the end of his present term is not a "heroic sacrifice for a principle of government." He said he will retire whether the amendment is approved or not.

New Home for Nursery

OPEN HOUSE — Mrs. Marge Mathers of 119 East Vista avenue, Daly City, president of the Village Nursery school, chats with daughter, Pamela, right, and Janet Morehead, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morehead of 892 Higate drive, Daly City, at an open house program at the nursery.

The occasion was the opening of the nursery's new quarters at 474 Parkview avenue, Daly City. The school is a state licensed co-operative, sponsored by the Jefferson High school district Adult Education program.

Triple Crash Injures Two

Two persons were injured in a three-car accident on Junipero Serra boulevard in Daly City last Friday.

Paul Larson, San Francisco, told police he was waiting for Robert Hector, San Francisco, to pull out of a parking place in front of a local pizza parlor, when a car driven by Alice I. Domenicani sideswiped him.

Larson's car was pushed into Hector's, police said. Injured was Valerie Arroya, and Robert Parwell, both of San Francisco. Miss Arroya was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for cuts, bruises and a muscle strain. Parwell was cut and bruised, but refused medical attention.

Hillsdale Red Lion Inn Opened New Room

BILL MONRO AND ED THRASHER, popular owners of the elegant Hillsdale Red Lion Inn, are proud to announce that, as of last Monday they had a "cub," so to speak. It is known as the Lion's Den and will be found downstairs.

This innovation is a "first" for the Peninsula and will offer a secluded den—with atmosphere of a private men's club for that important business luncheon or a tranquil respite from the days pressures. The professional or business man may partake of a varied menu ranging from a "diet special" to cross ribs of beef at reasonable prices with prompt, efficient service. Since comfort and convenience of guests are always in mind, the Den provides its own bar serving Lion size drinks; table telephone service for the busy executive, and a personal credit card for business and tax purposes, upon request. The Lion's Den caters to "Men Only"—with luncheons served Monday through Friday from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Red Lion Inn also offers complete banquet facilities for groups to 200, with maximum seating for 120.

Join other "lions of industry" for lunch in their Den. For that night-in-the-town with your favorite "lioness," start with cocktails and dinner at the Red Lion Inn. Phone 341-7731 for reservations.

MAY CASTRO is one in a million! A few weeks ago, it was mentioned in "Bright Lights" that May was featuring some of her mother's favorite recipes in the Mardi Gras Sidewalk Cafe (this information from a reliable source). According to "likable May," her mother was just a fair to middlin' cook, and all the recipes are her own. Alright, already—from now on the full credit goes to your skillet, May. . . . Chef Pete at the Burlingame Piccadilly was "kitchen superintendent" in numerous name restaurants in San Francisco before coming to the Peninsula. So you see, he's no new hand at the broiler. . . . New headliner for the Casino Show Room of the Reno Mapes Hotel is the Frank Moore Four. Featured on the marquee with this outstanding musical act is the Frankie Fanelli Show with Ree Brunell. Also the Rudy Rodarte Trio. Talented Joe Karnes, who performs nightly at the keyboard of the piano bar in the Coach Room of the hotel, backs the dusk-to-dawn live entertainment in the Casino Show Room.

FRANK PAONE, the "Billy Rose" of the Peninsula when it comes to talent scouting, is high on his praise for Judy Gains, a vocal lovely who entertains the Club Waldorf throngs on Friday and Saturday evenings. Larry Williams also comes in for a big entertainment bow on the "88s." . . . There's a sign hanging in the Skylark restaurant at the bar which has some pretty good advice: "Breathe deeply, and repeat as often as possible." . . . Ling's Chinese Restaurant and Delicatessen is off to a successful start. Not all the fire crackers popping in that area were in celebration of Chinese New Year's. Understand when the Chinese open a new place, they shoot firecrackers to scare away the evil spirits. . . . For a before or after-church Sunday morning breakfast, why not visit Bruno Scatena's Joe's of Westlake. Doors open at 10 a.m. and the ham 'n' eggs are super. Don't fail to see the huge tropical fish aquarium here. . . . Keith Williamson, the gent responsible for serving a goodly share of the fried chicken in the Burlingame sector, and way points, catered 200 orders to the Boy Scout Pack 354 of San Mateo last Saturday night. Outside catering is another Keith's Chicken and Steak House specialty.

MISHEL'S is an intimate, little restaurant located at 209 South B Street featuring home cooking; also the home of "Bunkey Burgers." Entrees changed daily on the luncheon and dinner menu. . . . New ownership news from the Bit of England. Understand the name of Jay Petty is in the running. Frank Cavalliere plans to sell out and return to the United Air Lines payroll, according to reports. . . . Rainy days present no problem at Farmers Market in Hillsdale. Just park the family car in the parking building. Shopping and dining all under one roof without raising the umbrella. . . . Business has been so brisk for Frank Schy, the Peninsula "taco king" (better known as "Horky"), since opening small Mexican restaurants in various shopping centers, that he is thinking of selling his Palo Alto Horky's in order to devote more time to restaurant expansion up and down the coast in super markets.

Joe "Muffins" Vega

Joe "Muffins" Vega, executive chef at Bodee Connelly's Pioneer Hotel, in Woodside, serves his tasty blue berry muffins as an added starter for the Sunday morning breakfast. But because Pioneer diners are requesting them for luncheon and dinner, as well, Joe, the nice guy that he is, is on the double to accommodate.

Those much-talked-about and hearty family-style dinners at Fosters Farm in Hillsdale are served Monday through Saturday from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m.; Sunday and holidays from 2 p.m. to 11 p.m. The restaurant is open from 6 a.m. daily with pancakes the order of the morn.

'To Take a Hike'

Talk around the various niteries and restaurants these days, is about "hikes and strikes." Not to be outdone, Enrico Romano, the Pacific Italian food great, has decided to heed the President's advice and take the 50-mile hike to prove his fitness.

Ah, for the life of an entertainer! Ardo of Ardo and Valencia, one of Las Garcia's sensational Sinaloa dance teams, performs his "Romance of Love" dance with attractive Dolores Valencia, then, immediately thereafter, dashes to a phone booth to call his wife, who is expecting their first baby.

Two Masonic Lodges held dinner meetings at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, recently. This is an ideal location for luncheon or dinner gatherings. Private dining room, superb food and beverages, and de luxe service.

Pancho's, an award-winning Mexican restaurant in Redwood City, has been getting a lot of attention from designers in the area, lately, — shopping for the secrets which give it its colorful, festive spirit.

Brentwood Lodge Ideal For Special Occassions

The Brentwood Lodge, a most unusual restaurant located just across the street from the north end of Tannan Race Track, has become the banquet mecca for those preferring something out of the ordinary.

The interior and exterior of the Lodge reminds one of a baronial estate in England—with its beamed ceilings and a touch of Gothic architecture, all walnut paneling. The 60-foot bar, which fronts the large and comfortable cocktail lounge, is enhanced by a real wood-burning fireplace.

Two dining rooms, pastel-covered upholstery in one and the second with stained glass windows, are most inviting. The Franciscan Room with its amazing picture-window scene of a waterfall, beautiful gardens and woodlands, will be a new adventure in dining out for the banquet minded.

Maitre d' Lee Arnold will be very pleased to arrange any special parties, banquets or wedding receptions for you. An invitation is also extended to take a room to room and kitchen tour of the Brentwood Lodge.

Enjoyed meeting Vic Fornier, who was hosting a champagne party (300 strong) for his daughter Vickie and her fiancé John Morino, during my last-Friday visit with owners John Graziano and Victor Seafant. Bar manager Gus Delafikes and hostess Agnes Thiem kept the champagne flowing as it should.

Food raves from satisfied customers are many. A la carte and full course dinners are served nightly, except Monday. Luncheon, daily. During the evening, Wednesday through Sunday, Travis Nesbit entertains at the organ and piano. Plenty of parking space.
